

WHAT IF I...

OUTLIVE MY FINANCIAL MEANS?

"Getting to know each resident is such a pleasant part of my responsibilities as Executive Director. I enjoy watching as a new resident becomes more comfortable in my community. As the years go by, they become such an integral part of our community. If the time comes where their finances are not able to fully meet the cost of living here, I am so thankful to the many individuals who have contributed to the Samaritan Program so then I can offer assistance so the resident can stay in place and flourish. To be able to underwrite part of a resident's fees and to provide them with the security he/she needs to continue to enrich their life's journey here is so very rewarding and fulfilling. Thank you for making this possible."

OUR BENEVOLENT MISSION

Gifts through the Samaritan Offering help to ensure the personal security and peace of mind of our most vulnerable residents, those who have outlived their monetary resources and, through no fault of their own, can no longer afford the full cost of service.

Gifts are accepted on an ongoing basis.

WEEKLY PRAYER

God of love,

In all that we do, in all that we say may we keep your Son in our thoughts this day.

He taught and he healed, he fed and he cast out demons in Galilee in days long since past.

Help us to live by the light of your grace yet not in dull mirrors, may we see face to face.

Through storm-tossed nights, in all we withstand, may we find rest in your crucified hands.

So, in all that we do and all that we say make us to know we're in your thoughts today.

Amen.

Rev. Douglas Forrester
